

Mary Lindenstein Walshok

Associate Vice Chancellor--Extended Studies
University of California San Diego

Mary Lindenstein Walshok Ph.D. is Associate Vice Chancellor for Public Programs at the University of California, Dean, University Extension and Adjunct Professor of Sociology. She has been a visiting professor at Stockholm School of Economics many years and in 2004 held an International Appointment, Department of Continuing Education, Oxford University, Oxford, England. Walshok is responsible for all of UCSD's outreach programs including such regionally focused things as Executive Education, continuing professional education, UCSD-TV and a variety of community and economic development initiatives such as the well-respected Global CONNECT and the San Diego Dialogue. Responsible for a staff of 275 and annual revenues of 30 million dollars plus. Walshok is the author of two books, Blue Collar Women and Knowledge Without Boundaries (dealing with the role of research universities in the economy); over fifty published articles and book chapters as well as a variety of reports on the "new economy" and research capabilities for local and state agencies. She is the recipient of numerous awards including the distinguished Kellogg Foundation's Leadership Fellowship and, most recently, induction into Sweden's Royal Order of the Polar Star. Active on boards of boards of numerous arts and philanthropic organizations, Walshok chaired the board of the 400 million dollar San Diego Community Foundation from 2002-2004.

